

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA AND PEPTIRON PILLS

Conditions that are both scrofulous and anemic are very common. Many persons whose faces are "broken out," cheeks are pale, and nerves are weak, suffer from them.

There is an effective, economical remedy in the combination of Hood's Sarsaparilla and Peptiron Pills, one taken before eating, the other after.

In these medicines taken in this way the best substances for the blood and nerves are brought together.—Adv.

GERMANS LOSE FOUR NEW U-BOATS

British Officers Arriving on This Side Bring the News.

An Atlantic Port, July 3.—The destruction recently of four of Germany's latest type submarines was reported by British army officers arriving here yesterday.

All expressed the greatest enthusiasm in the part America is to take in the war, and said there is now hope that Germany may be beaten in 1918.

One officer hinted that there may be important changes in the British admiralty operating board soon. The changes, he asserted, might include the transfer of its head, Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, with the appointment of younger officers who have been in close touch with the actual warfare on submarines.

VERMONT FAR DOWN

In the Per Capita Contribution for Red Cross War Work.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Latest tabulations by the American Red Cross, announced yesterday show that Delaware led all other states in per capita contribution to the Red Cross War fund with a rate of $5. Figures for other states follow:

Connecticut, $2.05; Massachusetts, $1.50; Rhode Island, $1.43; New York, (outside New York City), $1.28; New Hampshire, $0.84; Maine, $0.75; Vermont, $0.39.

U. S. CONTROL IN CLOTHING

The Senate Puts Cotton and Wool into Food Bill

SHOES AND FURS INCLUDED

Opponents Load Down the Measure in Effort to Kill It

Washington, July 3.—The Senate voted, overwhelmingly, to place under governmental control cotton, wool, hides and skins, and all articles made from them. This places clothing and shoes where the food administrator may have charge of production, sales, distribution and prices of these necessities. Lumber was then added.

Chairman Hinshaw of the Prohibition National committee does not approve the action of prohibition workers at Washington, who, in answer to President Wilson's appeal, agreed not to force the fight for a "bone dry" amendment to the food control bill. Chairman Hinshaw sees an opportunity lost, and says if the president had not gone to the aid of the brewers there would have been national prohibition within thirty days. On the coal situation the repudiation by Secretary Baker of the war department of the price agreement with coal operators engineered by Secretary Lane of the department of the interior is causing excitement in Washington, and is regarded as likely to become the chief topic for discussion in the next cabinet meeting. Secretary Baker is quoted as asserting that the price agreed to by the coal operators and Secretary Lane is outrageously high and that the parties to the agreement exceeded their authority. An examination as to cost of production at the mines is likely to follow, to be made by the federal trade commission.
